Other Compensation

Other compensation advisors may receive additional compensation from product sponsors. Per regulation, this form of compensation may not be tied to the sales of any products. Compensation may include such items as gifts valued at less than $100 annually, an occasional dinner or ticket to a sporting event, or reimbursement in connection with educational meetings or marketing or advertising initiatives, including services for identifying prospective customers. Product sponsors may also pay for, or reimburse the firm and advisors for the costs associated with, education or training events that may be attended by CBSI advisors and for conferences and events sponsored by the firm. CBSI may also receive reimbursement from product sponsors for technology-related costs associated with investment proposal tools it makes available to its Advisors for use with Customers.

SIPC Coverage

Securities are held in custody for your account with the Pershing LLC. Each account is protected up to a total of $75 million. Of this total, the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC), provides $500,000.00 coverage, no more than $100,000.00 of which may be in cash. The remaining $74.5 million of coverage, on securities only is provided by Pershing through a commercial insurer. The account protection applies when a SIPC member firm fails financially and is unable to meet obligations to securities customers, but it does not protect against losses from the rise and fall in market value of investments.
